

Meeting in Carpentras,
France 1-4 of July 2012

Monday, 2.07.12 Interim report conclusions and preparation for next days

- Welcome by ADREP
- Introduction of the participants
- Interim report conclusions
- Overview of the agenda
- Preparation of activities for next days

Tuesday, 3.07.12 Presentation of Partners' activities

1. PRO-MED sp. z o.o. Gdansk, Poland - presentation by Anna Grabowska

- Work with seniors since many years - <http://utw.moodle.pl>
- Participation in many EU projects - <http://blanka.moodle.pl/>
- Webpage for LLEE project management - <http://utw.moodle.pl/course/view.php?id=61>
- History - how we work with seniors using ICT tools (example of lessons, facebook, work with volunteers)
- Suggestions for the way of project's partners communication, where will we show project's results ? Moodle website or FB or developing a new website? Proposal for using a webpage of Libera Accademia Europea della Cultura, delle Arti e delle Scienze by Carlo Mastroeni. Decision will be made in Gdansk in October 2012.

2. ADREP - SOCIETE COOPERATIVE ADREP, Carpentras, France - presentation by Michael Cartier

"Presenting the chosen activity and the design for implementation, seniors and teachers meet and have opportunity to exchange their experiences"

- Main aims:
 - maintenance activity seniors due to high costs of healthy, growing of older people population
 - develop and maintenance network; small town is isolated and network is very important
 - study of public and private institutions working for seniors information, trainings
 - prevention of seniors health (environmental, para medical, medical, the continued service and maintenance of seniors at home)
 - discussion due to place of seniors in Europe
- Project "The seniors players of economic in France and Europe"

- Association of prof. Lemark
- ADREP activity: security, finance protection of seniors
 - Participation in the EBP project (RASE - name in French) - "Network Support for Seniors and Businesses" - April 2012
- an example of mission: tutoring, retirees guardians, tutoring (long process to be a tutor, the older is involving younger people)
 - Expected results of LLE project: sharing experiences - ways how we working with projects, first step for bigger project, to have stranger network for information (now office is working 2 hours per month)

Wednesday, 4.07.12 Information about 3rd Partnership meeting in Poland in October 2012 and continuation of Partners' activities presentations

1. Information about meeting in Gdansk at 17-20 of October 2012 including welcome letter from Posejdon hotel - by Anna Grabowska

2. F.S.M.C.V. - Federation of Musical Societies of Valencia, Spain - presentation by Jose Manuel Fernandez

- Main aims: educational (trans generational 12-90 years)
- Traditional value of music - seniors teach young, transmission from seniors to young of different form of education - meetings, celebrations) and from young to seniors - new technologies, languages, new musical abilities
- Program permanent education for seniors/ players, work in groups
 - At LLE project:
 - new value for music school - integration by senior's music bands, not formal education but experimental (they teach from each other)
 - idea of quartet play music (seniors play music are more active, less physical problems)

3. ICANO - International Council for Solidarity of NGOs, Ankara, Turkey - presentation by Semsettin Turkan

- Non-governmental umbrella organization which has more than 40 organizations working voluntarily in several sectors like education, culture, health, social services, family etc.
- Participation in many international conferences, events
- At LLE project
 - promote and disseminate the project among other organizations in Turkey (many people who participate in educational activities are seniors with more than 50 years).

4. A.C.R.T.S. - Art-Culture-Retraite-Transfert de savoir, Carpentras, France - presentation by Pierre Sarrade

- Main aims:
 - availabilities between generations, transfer from seniors to young generations
 - cooperation with many others associations in Carpentras (painters, poets and several craftsmen...).
 - work with different towns all round us which use to organize many expositions like sightseeing about wine cellar, olive oil, painters, pottery, sculpture, clock making....
- At LLE project:
 - share and know the solution given by other partners for their seniors